Trinidad Steel Band

The sensational Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band of over 22 members from Trinidad performed on Oct. 9, in Wallman Hall.

The Steel Band's music ranged from classical to rock and roll on oil drums. This fact in itself astounded the audience, but also because of the unbelievable fidelity and artistic accomplishment with which they performed each concert or dance number, whether it be modern, classical or native calypso. The calypso numbers were combined with exciting dancing and chanting.

The band performed such numbers as Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," Khachaturian's "Sabre Dance," and several selections from the rock musical "Hair."

"Set To Music"

"Set to Music," a two-part program, appeared on Oct. 20 in Wallman Hall. The program was sponsored by the Convocation Committee.

Selections from the musical theater were included in part one. They included, "No, No, Nanette," "Oklahoma," "Pal Joey," "Carousel," "Kiss Me Kate," and "Most Happy Fella."

Part two consisted of contemporary selections from the shows "Hair," "The Fantastiks," "Little Mary Sunshine," and "Your Own Thing." The group finished with a surprise rock finale.

Five talented artists composed the casts for this production. They include, Ted Bowlin, Richard Flanders, Andrea Levine, Harrison Fisher, and Patti Perkins.

Oedipus Rex

"Oedipus Rex," Sophocles' Classic tragedy of the king who slays his father and weds his mother, was presented by the National Players on Feb. 4 in Wallman Hall.

A play of action, poetry, and emotional power spans the centuries as a classic. The tale of the ill fated king is constructed with the finely-drawn skill of a masterful detective story.

The performance was financed in half by the West Virginia Arts and Humanities Council and Fairmont State College Program Committee.

Vanguard Theater

The Vanguard Theater, sponsored by the Convocations Committee, appeared in Wallman Hall on November 30.

Three one act plays were performed: "The Chairs" by Eugene Lonesco, "Camera Obscura" by Robert Patrick and "The Zoo Story" by Edward Albee.

Conceived and directed by Marcelle Feiner, Vanguard's Creative Director, the production cast includes Bonita Bray, David Bray, and Tom Dennis.

New Cleveland String Quartet

New Cleveland String Quartet gave a brilliant performance on March 1 in Wallman Hall.

The Quartet performed three numbers by Mozart, Bartok, and Beethoven. Members of the Cleveland Quartet include Paul Katz, Martha Strongin Katz, Peter Salaff and Donald Weilerstein.

New Cleveland Quartet is being considered for presentation at the celebrated mecca of chamber music, the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. Debut tours of South America and Europe will take place during the 1971-72 season.

Homecoming — 1970

Beautiful girls, sunshine, and Falcon enthusiasm were all a part of the charisma of Homecoming 1970.

Activities began Friday, Oct. 23, with a parade in the evening, followed by an informal dance in the ballroom.

A full stadium of students, alumni and fans gathered to see the Concord Mountain Lions fall to the Falcons, 40-12. Following the game, several fraternities and sororities sponsored receptions for visiting alumni, and an Alumni Banquet was held in the cafeteria.

Homecoming queen, Becky Weaver, was presented a bouquet of roses during halftime activities Saturday afternoon, and was crowned by college president, Dr. Eston K. Feaster, at the coronation ball that night.
